TROUPER MARGIE RUTH ... Leaves Stage to Continue Studies

Local Trouper Takes El Camino Classes

Taking a break from show business careers to attend classes during the winter at El Camino College are Margie Ruth and Carmelita Mann, who "love college life." Both are theater arts majors.

Miss Mann is manager of the Nimble-Aires group which appeared in the Campus Theater, El Camino, recently, while Miss Ruth was a member of the vaudeville troupe.

Local Resident
Although she is known professionally as Margie Ruth, one of the duo is Margery Ruth Picklar, a graduate of Perry Elementary School and Torrance High School. When she is not on the road, she lives in Torrance with her mother, Mrs. Gertrude Pickler, 3806 W. 178th St. She completed her schooling at the Hollywood Professional School.

She started her training at the age of four, studying tap, ballet, and acrobatics under the direction of Cloda Mann, Carmelita Mann's mother. She began work as a professional at 10, traveling here and abroad with the "Nimblettes," an acrobatic trio.
